The Hankook Ilbo is one of the largest circulation Korean language daily newspapers published in Seoul, Korea. The owner and founder of the paper was the late CHANG Kee-young, one-time deputy prime minister of Korea. CHANG Kee-young's eldest son is now the owner and publisher of the paper.

The Hankook Ilbo is reprinted in Los Angeles, Chicago, New York and Washington, D. C. and distributed to Korean residents in the United States. The Hankook Ilbo's Los Angeles branch publishes a Korean language local paper entitled "Mikook Soshik" (U.S. News) and distributes it to Korean residents in Los Angeles, Hawaii, San Francisco and Houston. "Mikook Soshik" carried articles on Korean Community activities and advertisements. CHANG Jae-ku is the chief of the Los Angeles branch of the Hankook Ilbo and publisher of the "Mikook Soshik".

CHANG Jae-ku is the second son of the late CHANG Kee-young and younger brother of the present publisher of the Hankook Ilbo. CHANG Jae-ku was sent by his father to Los Angeles [REDACTED]. It was believed that Los Angeles was [REDACTED].

When the Hankook Ilbo established its branch in Los Angeles in 1966, CHANG Jae-ku became its branch chief. CHANG Jae-ku, being pro-PARK Chung-hee, refuses to publish anti-PARK activities or carry their ads. His pro-PARK CHANG-hee attitude stirs the anti-PARK [REDACTED] people [REDACTED]. It has been said that recently [REDACTED].

The Hankook Ilbo also publishes a daily English language newspaper entitled the Korea Times in Korea. Its reprinted edition has been distributed in the U.S. It is also reported that due to financial difficulties, the Hankook Ilbo will be taken over by the Kyung Pyang Shinmun, a pro-PARK Korean language daily paper in Seoul, Korea.

CHO Se-young, present chief editor of the Hankook Ilbo, was the paper's correspondent in Washington, D. C. Mr. CHO Se-young came to Washington, D. C. last spring to collect data on the so-called Koreagate scandal. Upon his return to Seoul, Korea, he wrote a series of articles analyzing the Koreagate scandal.

Dear Director Webster:

DECLASSIFICATION AUTHORITY DERIVED FROM:
FBI AUTOMATIC DECLASSIFICATION GUIDE
DATE 04-11-2012

In conjunction with the Subcommittee's current investigation of Korean-American relations, we would appreciate the Bureau's response to the following question:

In the period from 1968 to the present time, has the FBI conducted any type of liaison with representatives of the Korean Central Intelligence Agency? If yes, what kind of liaison; where is it conducted; what kind of subjects are part of discussions between the FBI and the KCIA?

We would appreciate your prompt response to the above and thank you for your cooperation with our inquiry.

Sincerely yours,

DECLASSIFICATION AUTHORITY DERIVED FROM:
FBI AUTOMATIC DECLASSIFICATION GUIDE
DATE 04-11-2012

Dear Mr. Chairman:

In your letter of August 30, 1978, you inquired as to whether the FBI, from 1963 to the present, has conducted any type of liaison with representatives of the Korean Central Intelligence Agency (KCIA).

Since 1968, this Bureau has not maintained any liaison with the KCIA; however, the fact that no liaison is maintained has not precluded instances where KCIA officials have unilaterally provided information. For your information, there is no method of retrieving from our files the number of instances where KCIA officials have volunteered information to our field offices or Headquarters. This Bureau does maintain an Office of Legal Attache, Tokyo, Japan, which maintains liaison with two of the larger police departments in Korea, however, it does not maintain liaison with the KCIA.

The above information is provided as assistance to your Subcommittee's current investigation of Korean - American relations.

Sincerely,

On [redacted] 1978, [redacted] T-1, who has provided reliable information in the past, contacted a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). Source advised that the Republic of Korea Central Intelligence Agency (KCIA) detachment in Washington, D. C. has been maintaining an interest in the activities of certain groups and individuals in the Washington, D. C. area. Source related that the KCIA had learned that an organization calling itself the Friends of Korean People (FOKP) gave a dinner party in November, 1978, at the Gourmet Kingdom Restaurant, Arlington, Virginia, for United States Congressman Donald Fraser. Another group, the Han Min Tong, would not attend the dinner and gave Congressman Fraser a dinner party one week later. Source identified the leaders of the FOKP as: [redacted] assigned to the ROK Embassy, Washington, D. C.; and, [redacted] who allegedly is employed by [redacted] in Washington, D. C. (S) (u)

Source further advised that the KCIA observed a demonstration held on December 10, 1978, in front of the White House, Washington, D. C. According to source, the demonstrators were Korean residents of Washington, D. C., who are anti-PARK Chung-hee. PARK is the President of the ROK. At this demonstration, SOO Yu-hong, one of the demonstrators, and a Mr. Son, a reporter for the Han Kook Shinbo, a Washington, D. C. based Korean newspaper, became involved in a fracas when SOO accused Son of calling him, SOO, a communist. The Executive Protective Service intervened and no charges were filed by either man, (S)(u)

Source advised that the KCIA routinely collects such information concerning demonstrations directed against the PARK Chung-hee Government. (S)(u)

The Republic of Korea, since the early 1970s, has come to the FBI's attention in three categories. First are the allegations of harassment in the Korean-American community by Korean Central Intelligence Agency, which not only received FBI investigative attention, but also were extensively investigated by former Congressman Donald Fraser's subcommittee investigation of Korean American relations. The second category involves scattered unrelated allegations of violations of the Foreign Agents Registration Act, and of course the third and most publicized category is the [redacted]
